

SNAPSHOT | Making Higher Education More Affordable in Minnesota

An Opportunity Agenda for a Better Minnesota

The opportunity to succeed in life and create jobs in our economy is built on a world-class education, from early childhood and K-12, through technical school and college. To make college and career training more affordable for 85,600 students in Minnesota, Governor Mark Dayton is proposing a $62 million investment in the State Grant Program, to increase opportunities for Minnesotans everywhere in our state. In contrast, House and Senate Republicans would leave thousands of college students ineligible for State Grant assistance.

Below, see what this funding would mean for students in colleges and universities across Minnesota. These are projected figures for State Grant recipients in 2018.
